

What can I expect? When you go into a UK online centre, you can expect:

- A friendly welcome
- Help and support to use computers and the internet
- Free or low-cost internet access
- Guidance on how to find and use public services online
- Advice on what you might do next
- A safe place to learn
- Fair treatment and respect

Our promise

At UK online centres, we promise to give you the help you want to start using a computer and the internet, whether it's to pay a bill, contact a friend or just find out about things you're interested in.

What's next?

Get started: Follow our three easy steps and get started today.